FACULTY MEETING

February 22, 11-12:15
1101 Morrill Hall

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Welcome Back! The GVPT NEWS covers all the departmental workshops, seminar series, panel discussions, brown bags, and general meetings that occur. We discuss undergraduate and graduate student affairs. We even bring you up to date on past PhD's and their promotions, publications, and successes!

GVPT American, Comparative, International Relations and Theory fields have been successfully mentoring our PhD students. With regular workshops, guest speakers, individual and group mentoring, GVPT graduate students take advantage of the full range of research, teaching, and service experiences available. Publishing with their mentors, working on research grants and regular practice job talks are all in preparation of going on the market. A little time spent exploring the breadth and depth of political science can lead to better informed choices. I look forward to seeing continued involvement!

Mark I. Lichbach
Professor and Chair

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES

Faculty Funding for Graduate Students

Faculty members that expect to be able to fund students during the 2012-2013 academic year should notify me in the near future. Please indicate how many students you expect to fund and whether or not the funding (in each case) will be for one or two semesters. If you have submitted (or plan to submit) a proposal that might allow you to fund one or more graduate students, please let me know that too. We will need this information to estimate the resources available for new student funding. If you have already provided this information, thanks.

GVPT Financial Aid

The GVPT financial aid application forms for graduate students will be available on February 1st. The deadline for submitting completed financial aid applications for the 2012-13 academic year is February 15th. We need these applications from all graduate students who wish to be considered for funding next year, regardless of their funding commitment status.

Graduate Admissions

We will soon be in the middle of graduate recruitment season. We expect to receive over 200 applications, and we are sure to have many highly qualified applicants. A large number of these students will make campus visits. Please be generous with your time when they request to meet you. Faculty should also feel free to examine the applicant files and to provide recommendations to one or more members of the Admissions committee (Fred Alford, Ernesto Calvo, Mike Hanmer, Paul Huth, David Prina, Bill Reed, Robinson Woodward-Burns, Dror Yuravlivker, and me). Do remember, however, that the files must be reviewed in the main office.

Scheduling Pre-Prospectus Meetings

Results from the January exams are already starting to trickle out. Students who pass their primary field exams should schedule their pre-prospectus meeting in a timely fashion. Please see me if serious scheduling conflicts arise.

Irwin Morris
GVPT Graduate Director

MESSAGE FROM THE PLACEMENT DIRECTOR

Welcome back and happy new year! Over the break, I was happy to learn some good news from our students, who are in many cases doing fine despite the discouraging job market. We had some students who accepted jobs or received invitations to interview for tenure-track positions. Ben Appel (IR) accepted an offer from Michigan State, Cornel Ban (comparative/ IR) will be going to Boston University, and Alison Staudinger will be starting at U Wisconsin Green Bay next fall. Melissa Bell (American) will be working for Belden Russonello Strategists, and another student is in negotiations to be associate director of a regional studies center. And others have received invitations to interview. All should be congratulated on their success.

Graduate students might want to consider attending or participating in the APSA Teaching and Learning conference this spring, which is in Washington DC. I plan to organize a few brown bag sessions on teaching issues, and hope that everyone will take a moment to let me know what issues to address. Finally, I wish you all would contribute to the "Behind the Podium" blog!

Virginia Haufler
Director of Placement

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

We hope you enjoyed your break and are looking forward to another great semester! As always, if you have any questions concerning undergraduate studies, feel free to contact one of our advisors:

Christina Bussie, cbussie@umd.edu; 301-405-4142
Jacqueline Johnson, johnson2@umd.edu; 301-405-4124

You can also speak with the Assistant Director of Undergraduate Studies:
Apitchaya Pimpawathin, apimpawa@umd.edu; 301-405-4154

We are happy to help you solve student issues, aid students in distress, or provide information on a variety of opportunities within the department.

Scholarships

GVPT will be awarding several departmental scholarships this semester. The deadline for all departmental scholarships is early March. Please encourage your very best students to apply for these awards and consider writing letters of recommendation for them. More information on our scholarships is available at:

<http://www.bsos.umd.edu/gvpt/undergraduate/scholarships/>

Study Abroad

Students can earn Government & Politics credit on a variety of study abroad opportunities for the summer and fall semester. Most study abroad application deadlines take place early March. In particular, please encourage your best students to apply for the Oxford Programme in British Law and Politics which takes place July 2011. Designed for honors students, this intensive program will explore international politics and British law from world renowned Oxford faculty. Student can get more information by logging on to the Study Abroad website here: <http://www.international.umd.edu/studyabroad/1029>

Maryland Student Researchers Program

Please don't forget about the Maryland Student Researchers program sponsored by the university. Students receive an official notation on their transcript for participation. Faculty should add their projects to the website to recruit students. More information can be found online here:

<http://www.ugresearch.umd.edu/programs/msr.html>

Maryland Summer Scholars Program

The Maryland Summer Scholars program is a competitive grant awarded to student researchers over the summer. Students participate in research projects with faculty, as well as specialized seminars and other events throughout the summer. Summer Scholars earn about $3000 for participation and gain a competitive edge when applying for graduate education. The deadline to apply is early February. Please encourage your best undergraduate students to apply. More information can be found here:

<http://www.ugresearch.umd.edu/summerscholars.php>

Karen Kaufmann
GVPT Undergraduate Director

MESSAGE FROM THE GVPT GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Graduate Student Association (GSA) represents graduate student interests and serves as a liaison with faculty and administration, provides a forum for discussing ideas and organizing programs that benefit grad students, deals with any issues, and helps build a sense of community in the department. We hold monthly meetings (Wednesdays in Tydings 1111 from 11-12) and always have food (pizza) and soda.

The next GSA meeting will be Wednesday, February 8th at from 10:30 to 12:00pm. We will have a guest speaker, Dr. Irwin Morris, who will explain the processes for admissions, comps, funding, etc and answer questions that students may have. Also, GSA will discuss this Spring's initiatives and workshops. Finally, GSA is co-sponsoring a statistical software workshop on February 3rd from 1:00pm to 3:30pm in Lefrak, Lab #4. It will cover the basics of SPSS. If you are interested in attending, please contact Jeffrey Taylor at jtaylor7@umd.edu.

STAFF AND ADMINISTRATION

MAKE-UP EXAMS (Proctoring)

The main office staff does not proctor or oversee make-up exams. Make-up exams will not be held in the GVPT main Office Conference Room.

RETURNING STUDENT PAPERS

The main office staff does not collect or return student papers. If you want to provide a pick-up service, give the students a time when you will be in your office for them to pick the papers up. Leaving papers out for the students to flip through is a violation of student privacy. The best suggestion is to ask the students to provide a self addressed and stamped envelope and you will return the papers to them.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF OUR PAST PHD's

Articles and Chapters

Ziv, Guy, PhD 2008, published his article, "Cognitive Structure and Foreign Policy Change: Israel's Decision to Talk to the PLO," was published in the December 2011 issue of International Relations. Guy also published in 2011, his textbook reader, Readings in U.S. Foreign Policy, Revised First Edition, by Kendall Hunt Publications.

FIELD UPDATES - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

AMERICAN POLITICS FIELD - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

The American Politics Workshop is a bi-monthly research colloquium for faculty and graduate students. The workshop constitutes an ongoing research community where participants present and discuss papers in an informal, supportive environment. Papers are made available via the workshop website in advance of our meetings, and participants are expected to have read them. Discussion leaders are assigned on a rotating basis, matching papers with discussants who share complementary research interests. Many of the papers presented in recent years have gone on to publication in top tier political science journals.

The workshop is especially beneficial for our graduate students. It provides an excellent opportunity to interact with the American Politics faculty outside of the classroom and, for advanced graduate students actively engaged in scholarly research, the workshop can also be an invaluable source of professional advice. The American Politics faculty strongly encourages all of our graduate students to regularly participate in the workshop.

The AP Workshop website is: <http://www.bsos.umd.edu/gvpt/apworkshop>. While the workshop focuses on issues in American politics, all faculty and graduate students are welcome to attend.

Time and location: 11:00 am-12:15pm, Morrill 1101

Although the Comparative Politics Workshop focuses on comparative politics, all faculty and graduate students are welcome to attend.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS FIELD – WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

The international relations workshop brings together faculty and graduate students with an interest in international relations. We invite faculty and graduate students to discuss their latest research; present papers in progress, with a formal discussant; present information for professional development; and invite guest speakers. Students are strongly encouraged to attend and we would also like to see some students present their own work in the workshop. The international relations workshop will be meeting on Mondays this fall from 11:00-12:30 in 1101 Morrill Hall. We will schedule approximately 5 meetings over the course of each semester. Working papers will be posted on the IR Workshop website at www.bsos.umd.edu/gvpt/irworkshop as they become available.

Students could present dissertation work or a conference paper. Students interested in presenting their work should contact Scott Kastner at skastner@gvpt.umd.edu.

Scheduled Events are from 11-12:30pm in the NEW CIDCM Conference Room:

Spring Schedule:

February 6:

Quddus Snyder, “Diluted to Death: Balancing, Bandwagoning, and Concept Stretch”

February 27:

Mike Horowitz, “TBA”

March 12:

Kathleen Cunningham, “TBA”

April 9:

Sean Zeigler, “TBA”

April 16:*Kyle Beardsley, Emory University, “TBA”*April 30:*Vera Mironova and William Reed, “TBA”

If you are interested in presenting or acting as a discussant, please contact Scott Kastner.

POLITICAL THEORY FIELD - WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

Please watch for emails and newsletters for panels as we schedule them. All graduate students and faculty are welcome, especially those with some interest in wars and/or game theory. A lot of really clever work has been done recently in this area. So even if you don't care at all about wars, and couldn't care less about game theory, you should come just to find out what is going on.

Spring Schedule:*CIDCM WORKSHOP ON PEACE AND CONFLICT

We are in the process of scheduling workshops for the Fall semester. If you are interested in presenting your work or serving as a discussant please contact Kenneth Matis ASAP at kmatis@umd.edu. We have not settled on an exact set of dates for the entire semester yet, so please let me know approximately when you would like to present or be a discussant.

I will email a working schedule for the Fall semester as soon as it become final.

As a reminder, the workshop will be held generally on Tuesdays every third week at the University of Maryland in Morrill Hall, room 1101 (conference room on the first floor), from 11:00-12:30. We will follow the standard format followed in previous years in which a) ongoing research is presented, b) a paper is submitted about a week in advance for everyone to read, and c) a discussant will start things off with some comments and then we will open up for general discussion. We also encourage advanced graduate students with papers and dissertation chapters to present their work. The workshop has benefited in the past from the active participation of graduate students and we would like to see this continue this year with students presenting their ongoing work or serving as discussants.

Spring Schedule:*QUANTITATIVE POLITICS – WORKSHOPS and SEMINARS

Center for American Politics and Citizenship (CAPC)

2012 Maryland Politics Summit

On Monday, January 23, CAPC held its 2nd annual Maryland Politics Summit in Annapolis, MD. The event was a great success, with the State's legislative leaders discussing some of the year's most important policy and political issues. Speakers included the House Speaker, majority and minority leaders from both houses of the General Assembly, key committee leaders, and representatives from education nongovernmental organizations. Over 100 students, UMD faculty and staff, state lobbyists, and government officials attended the afternoon conference.

CAPC accepting resumes for summer and fall 2012 undergraduate research assistants

CAPC is currently accepting resumes from undergraduate students interested in working on cutting-edge research during the upcoming summer and fall semesters. If you are interested in finding out more information, please contact Mike Charlebois at mcharleb@umd.edu or (301) 314-2736.

CAPC has moved offices, from its old offices in Morrill Hall into Tydings Hall. Our new location is 1127, 1137, and 1115 Tydings Hall. You can still contact us at (301) 314-2736 or CAPC@umd.edu.
