

Curriculum Vitae

Scott Albrecht

Department of Sociology
Brigham Young University
(979) 450-3042
staltbrecht@verizon.net

Areas of Interest:

Development, Inequality, Demography, Statistical Methods

Education:

May 2003 – Brigham Young University (3.94 GPA)
April 2006 B.S. Sociology (4.0 GPA), minor History

Sep. 2006 - University of Maryland (3.4 GPA)
May 2008 MA Sociology (anticipated)

Honors and Awards:

2005 Research Assistantship, Brigham Young University; Golden Key Honor Society

2004 International Study Program Scholarship; ORCA Mentoring Grant; BYU Field Study participant (India); Research Assistantship, Brigham Young University; IRB approval

2003 Dean's List; Heritage Scholarship

Scholarship:

A. Publications

2007 Albrecht, Don and Scott Albrecht. 2007. "Analyzing the Adverse Effects of Inequality on Disadvantaged Groups." Sociological Quarterly.

2004 Albrecht, Scott. 2004. "Philosophical Globalization: Identity Crisis and Anomie in the Indian Dalit Community." Journal of Undergraduate Research.

B. Works in Progress

2007 Albrecht, Don and Scott Albrecht. "Economic Restructuring, the Educational Income Gap and Overall Income Inequality." Under review at Social Forces.

C. Presentations

- 2004            “Understanding the Economic Causes and Consequences of the Delegitimization of Caste in South Asia: An Economic Structuralist Approach.”
Presented at the Brigham Young University International Field Study Symposium

C. Current Projects

- 2005            Economic and Policy Impacts of Boycotts on American Publicly Traded Corporations, under the direction of Dr. Brayden King

Positions Held:

- Sep. 2006 –    Teaching Assistant, Socy 101 under Dr. John Pease
May 2007       Responsibilities included grading and leading a weekly discussion session
- Jan. 2004 –    Research Assistant, Bolivia Family Health Study—Independent research opportunity, data collection, literature review, data analysis (SAS),
Jan. 2005       preparation of research proposal
- Aug. 2005 –    Research Assistant to Dr. Brayden King, Brigham Young
Current        University—Organization of data collection process, coding, data cleaning, literature reviews

Miscellaneous:

Language:

Fluency in Spanish (5 years experience including two years residence in Argentina)

Computer Programming:

Training and research experience in SPSS, Stata and Excel; Basic knowledge of SAS

Completed Shanti Ashram Internship Program, Summer 2004