

MOTTO IMPRESSED

Advertisement. "Td Rather Be Studying Weekend." The Diamondback, No. 144 (May 13, 1999), p. 2.

Armao, Jo-Ann and The Associated Press. "The Grapevine." The Washington Post (October 13, 1988), p. Md3.

Associated Press. "Students Say No to `Party School.'" Prince Georges County Journal, XIV (October 11, 1988), p. 13.

Associated Press News Wire (via Lance Helgeson). October, 1988.

Berman, Mike. "Eight O'clock in the friggin' Morning Woes." The Diamondback, LXXXVI, Finals Issue (December 15, 1993), p. 22.

Birnbach, Lisa with Annette Geldzahler. Lisa Birnbach's New and Improved College Book. New York: Prentice Hall Press, 1990, pp. 240-243.

Dooley, Nancy and Paul, Keith. "Pease Urges Pledges to Mind Studies." The Diamondback, LXXXI (October 3, 1988), p. 1.

Erlichman, Janelle. "Ideas Set for Senior Class Gift." The Diamondback, LXXXVII (April 3, 1995), pp. 1 and 3.

Greene, Jon. "Campus Senate Turns Down `Td Rather Be Studying' Motto." The Diamondback, LXXXI (October 14, 1988), pp. 1 and 3.

Hammel, David. "SGA May Honor Dead Flunkers with Statue." The Diamondback, LXXXVII (February 2, 1995), pp. 1 and 3.

Hammel, David. "SGA Supports Podium Promoting Education." The Diamondback, LXXXVII (February 9, 1995), p. 3.

"Td Rather Be Studying." Undergraduate Education Day Handout and Resolution. April 14, 1995.

Katz, Randy and Riebman, Penina. "A Motto for the Masses." The Diamondback, LXXXVII (February 7, 1995), p. 4.

King, Elisha. "Motto Not Used By Officials." The Diamondback, LXXXII (March 28, 1990), p. 1.

Lamson, Brandon. "Recognizing the Unknown Students." The Diamondback, LXXXIII (October 10, 1990), p. 5.

Leibowitz, Stacy. "Students Who'd Rather Do Anything But Study." The Diamondback, Finals Week Edition (December 15, 1995), p. 19.

Mack, Maynard Jr. Letter to the Editor. The Diamondback (October 5, 1988).

Mack, Maynard Jr. "Wouldn't You Rather Be Studying?" The Diamondback, LXXXIV (October 18, 1993), p. 4.

Mattos, Jennifer. "Students Promote 'Unknown' Statue." The Terrapin Crier, I (November-December, 1990), p. 11.

Money, Jennifer. "SGA Adopts New Motto: Wins Kirwan's Backing." The Diamondback, LXXXI (October 7, 1988), pp. 1 and 7.

Naylor, Janet. "To Be, or To Study?" The Diamondback, LXXXI (October 3, 1988), p. 4.

Parish, Carole Anne. "The OUA Cruise February 28, 1990." Mirror Image, IV (March, 1990), pp. 4 and 6.

Paul, Carlo Toli. "Tuesdays." The Diamondback, LXXXVIII (January 31, 1996), p. 6.

Pease, John. "Education is a Noble and Risky Ambition." The Diamondback (October 17, 2000), p. 4.

Pease, John. "I'd Rather Be Studying: A True (?) Story." Commuter Connection, VII (Spring, 1994), pp. 4-5.

Reddick, Tracie. "Roll Out--The Books? UMd. Seeks New Slogan." The Washington Times, VII (October 11, 1988), pp. B1 and B3.

Samsock, Karen. "College Park Students Take Textbook Turn." The Sun, CCCIII (October 10, 1988), pp. 1D-2D.

Unsigned. Editorial: "A Waste of Money." The Diamondback, LXXXVII (February 3, 1987), p. 4.

Unsigned. Editorial: "And Mottoes for All." The Diamondback, LXXXI (October 17, 1988), p. 4.

Unsigned. "Motto Passes; Student/Police Relations Hit." The Diamondback, LXXXI (October, 13, 1988), p. 7.

Unsigned. "That's Politics: I'd Rather Be Unknown." The Washington Times, VII (October 17, 1988), p. B1.

Unsigned. "The Student Who Would be King." The New York Times, CXXXVIII (October 23, 1988), p. 42.

Wass, Nick. Photo: "I'd Rather Be Studying." The Diamondback, LXXXIII (November 23, 1991), p. 4.

White, Jason M. "Terp Trot Draws 150 Athletes." The Diamondback, LXXXVI (April 4, 1994), pp. 1 and 3.

Woodards, Shantee. "Sorority Speaker Explains Campus Motto's Origin." The Diamondback, No. 104 (March 10, 1998), p. 3.