

DOUGLAS AND MICHAELS

1. revolution of fatherhood (father's role in raising children)
2. working mothers against stay-at-home mothers (pinning the two against each other)
3. problems finding childcare

-However much you do and love for your kids, it is never enough

-No woman is truly complete or fulfilled unless she has kids

-Intensive mothering, powerful competition with each other

-Dead beat dads and dad patrols

problems for single women

benefits for single women

choices of motherhood

-Benefits of working fathers trying to combine work and family

-Benefits for the children of working fathers trying to combine work and family

-Problems for stay at home fathers

-Benefits for stay at home fathers

1. Magazine "how to" columns for woman and wives.

2. TV shows depicting perfect housewives.

3. The general mass media's condescending treatment of the women's movement, including newspapers and talk shows.

- 1) Problems of fathers who have working wives.
- 2) Problems of young women having getting married.
- 3) Positive Expectations for mothers in general.
- 4) Negative Expectations for mothers in general.

-taking mothers for granted

-gender problems for children

-motherhood as an institution